Things To Know

Online Registration

Registration for the State Career Development Conference will be online at <https://www.decaregistration.com/ga-state>. All attendees must be registered. Invoices will be available on the online registration site and receipts will be emailed once payment is received. If your chapter owes for any Fall GA DECA Event, you will not be allowed to register until your balance is paid.

Hotel Reservation Information

GA DECA will have rooms available at 3 different locations- Hyatt Regency Atlanta, Marriott Marquis, and Hilton Atlanta.

Hotel Reservations will take place online on the State CDC Registration Site. The hotel rate is $230. YOU WILL PAY GA DECA FOR THE ROOM RATE! The housing deadline is January 9th. All State CDC Attendees are required to spend 2 nights (except Middle School Day only participants). Housing assignments will be sent to advisors by January 23rd.

Advisor Duties

We will need lots of help running the competitive events. Every advisor will be required to serve a 2.5 hour competition duty either on Thursday afternoon or Friday morning. Sign Ups will be available on the GA DECA website.

We also have an opportunity for advisors to serve as Event Directors at State CDC. Event Directors will run an event from start to finish (6 hours) and can choose either Thursday or Friday. Incentives are available for both Event Assistants (2.5 hours) and Event Directors (6 hours). You can locate more information and the incentives on the sign up forms located at www.gadeca.org

GEORGIA DECA PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS

For each person attending any Georgia DECA sponsored conference, he/she must read and sign the code of conduct. A copy of the code of conduct must be turned in for each person attending the conference. Deviation from this Code of Conduct will result in the student/school being sent home from the DECA activity.

Georgia DECA wants every person to have an enjoyable experience with every attention paid to safety and comfort. All participants will be expected to conduct themselves in a manner best representing the nation's greatest student organization.

Note that attendance is not mandatory. By voluntarily participating, you agree to follow the official conference rules and regulations or forfeit your personal rights to participate. We are proud of our students and know that by signing this Code of Conduct, you are simply reaffirming your dedication to be the best possible representative of Georgia DECA. If a student gets in trouble at any DECA Conference/Event they will no longer be able to participate in DECA.

- 1. I will, at all times, respect all public and private property, including the hotel/motel in which I am housed.

Written manuals which pass the initial screening process will be sent on for judging by business representatives. Manuals must meet a preset standard set by judges in advance of judging in order to have representation at the state conference and to earn a trophy. Interviews will be conducted for all manuals at the state conference. Finalists will be announced at the awards ceremony and trophies will be awarded. Students will have the opportunity to revise manuals declared eligible for ICDC after the State CDC. Student representatives of the manuals should attend the state conference and register as a participant in manual competition.

Please Remember: The individual (s) who wrote the manual when it was submitted on the 16th (including chapter manuals) must also be the individual (s) who interview at the State Competition.

Chapters failing to meet the above deadlines will forfeit their eligibility.

Manuals will be judged in January by Judges online. Presentations will take place on Thursday, February 26th and the Top 9 will be recognized on stage at the Awards Session and eligible for Competition at ICDC.
